Another Victory for

Garland's Sturdy "9."

Garland's aggregation of league professionals made Wellsville's famous team hunt balls in the tall timber last Saturday and "safe hits" for Wellsville were few and far between. With the exception of one error on third that gave Wellsville two runs, Garland played a cracker-jack professional game from start to finish. Hit Andy, well they couldn't find it and two-baggers for Garland were plentiful. Umpire Campbell dealt out fair judgments that were of the "good-eye" kind and Wellsville's nine were just simply out-classed that's all. You will notice by the line-up that Garland has made some changes in the nine and now boasts of the strongest amateur team in the state.

Following is the line-up and score:—

GARLAND		WELLSVILLE

Justice Knudson's Court.

(From Box Elder News.)

For disturbing the peace and quiet in the neighborhood of Thompson's Ranch about two miles west of Tremont, William Johnson who testified that he has been in court before a few times, left $20.00 with Justice Knudson. Johnson did not care to be tried by Justice Vanfleet of Garland who had previously fined him $5.00 for contempt of court, so he took a change of venue to the Box Elder Court where the case was warmly contested. B. H. Jones appeared for Johnson, Co. Atty B. C. Call represented the State.

Kaiser Leases Ball Park.

He has already booked a number of good games for the near future and will do all he can to make this season the best yet.

District S. S. Convention.

Officers and teachers of the Box Elder, Malad, Weber, Summit and Morgan stakes met last Sunday in Convention at Ogden over 1,500 people being in attendance. There were four sessions three of them being held in the Weber Academy hall and an evening session in the Tabernacle. There were in attendance fifteen members of the Deseret Sunday School union board, the presidency of each of the five stakes was represented and members of the bishopric from each ward.

At all the sessions Charles J. Ross was chairman, Miss Annie B. Brown was secretary, Joseph Ballantyne, musical director, and Ernest O'Brien, organist. All the papers read were of a high class and showed that great thought, study and care was used in preparation. The discussions were very animated and considerable enthusiasm followed on each topic, all of which proved very beneficial. At the last session held in the tabernacle in the evening, and which had a record-breaking attendance, the speakers were President Moses W. Taylor of the Summit stake, President L. W. Shurtliff of the Weber stake, George M. Cannon of Salt Lake, and Elder David O. McKay of Ogden. The topics handled were Sunday amusements and home entertainments and were the means of giving some very valuable information and thought on the proper way of spending the Sabbath.

Winters, Ed Rogers, the Misses Julia Strong, Alice Grover, Jennie Waulass, Barbara Waulass, Lucy King, Lizzie Smith and Della Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. To Our Subscribers.

The latest ruling of the Post Office Department is, that Uncle Sam will not carry newspapers at the present rate, if the subscribers are more than one year in arrears with subscriptions. The officials practically insist that subscriptions must be paid in advance. Uncle Sam does not pretend to dictate as to how our business shall be conducted, but he insists that he will not deliver papers to those who do not pay up their subscription, as he is not in the postal business for the pleasure of it altogether.

Now we do not want to lose your subscription. We need it and you ought, by all means, to have our paper, so let's get together and comply with the requirements of the government, thereby making life more pleasant for us all.

Coach Brown and his team to champion them from the bleachers.

The Hammond Canal Company turned the water in their completed canal on Monday and the farmers along the waterway are jubilant over the prospects for the season's crop and have great confidence in the new management of the canal.

Miss Pearl Saunders returned from Smithfield last Saturday.

Brown, the Hotel and Livery man, has some fine calendars out advertising the fine bass fishing in Bear River at Collinston. Anglers after bass will do well to call on Mr. Brown for more definite information.

The recent rains have made great improvement in the crops in this vicinity.

Dr. Smith who has been laid up the past month from the results of an accident on the O. S. L. is able to be about again.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The attendance at last Sunday afternoon's services was below the average. The meeting was presided over by Bp. W. L. Grover and the singing was congregational under the direction of F. D. Welling. Prayer was offered by Matt. McMurtrie. Elders Harry Passey and Wm. Preston administered the sacrament.

The first speaker was Elder E. F. Marshall, a returned missionary, who recently came here from Lyman, Wyoming. A. H. Gleason and B. J. Trunnell also addressed the meeting. The benediction was pronounced by W. H. Clayton.

Reubs of Garland Defeat

The Ogden Railroad Boys.

(From Ogden Standard)

The Union Depot Baseball team, composed of players in the offices of Superintendent Manson and Auditor Hess, invaded Garland Sunday, with flying banners and hopes of an easy victory over the Garland Reubens. But the clerks were doomed to bitter and humiliating disappointment and returned home with plumes askew and weary and dejected from being scientifically walloped all around the diamond by the clever Reubens. The score was 34 to 4 in favor of the Reubs, and the alfalfa aristos would have made it 100 to 4, had they not become tired of scoring runs. Several of the Reub batters sent balls over into the adjacent country, and the agricultural aggregation howled with glee and merriment and referred in sarcastic terms to the "Harriman Hikers." Manager Murphy of the Ogden team insists that several professional players were among the Reubens, and that his men were not in good form to compete with league players.

An effort was made by the Ogden boys to keep the score from the public, but the difference in stories told was so marked as to attract attention—and truth prevails.
